Because we are dealing with the hearts of people, the school can - at times - be very intense. Personal responses to teaching and small group interaction may include (but is certainly not limited to) some of the following: expression of anger, prejudices and resentments, apprehension, anxiety, insomnia, depression, dissociation, etc. Note: If a crime is confessed in small group during the course of the school, the Facilitator/leader of your small group will need to report it to the Director/Facilitator of the school. The Director/Facilitator of the school, in accordance with the laws of that state, may need to report it to the proper authorities. Because of time restraints, all of your personal life issues will not be dealt with during the course of the school. This is a life-long process. However, we do give you the tools to pursue further healing, and you may want to pursue further ministry once the school is complete. If you feel there are already significant life issues that need to be addressed, ministry or counseling prior to your enrollment in the school is advisable and always beneficial. If you have been seeing a counselor, we ask that you discuss the school with your counselor and receive their approval. Their signature is required below.

Having accepted the school enrollment information, requirements outlined in this application, and the Elijah House Facilitated School Booklet, I prayerfully submit my application. I agree to respectfully abide by the determination of Elijah House as to the suitability of my attendance at this time. I agree to indemnify and hold Elijah House and any Host Facility harmless for any of my personal responses to the teachings and small group time during the school. I also agree to indemnify and hold Elijah House and any Host Facility harmless for any costs in time, travel, accommodations, or other incidentals, should the school be canceled, my acceptance be delayed, or I am asked to discontinue the course to seek ministry before continuing at another time. I agree to maintain the confidentiality of what is shared by leaders and students in class and small groups. I understand that I may be filmed or photographed during the event for use in future training events and advertisement for display without using my name, and I give permission for use of my image/picture in this way.

I understand that my signature testifies that all information provided is true, that I accept all terms of enrollment, and will provide sufficient funds in a timely manner for my participation in the school.

Elijah House School of Ministry
CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT
for ELIJAH HOUSE STUDENTS AND SMALL GROUP LEADERS

At an Elijah House prayer ministry school, we come into contact with very personal and confidential information. To divulge such information can be very hurtful even if we intend no harm. In order to promote an atmosphere of trust, we ask that you take great care in treating ministry information as confidential, and not share it beyond your small group.

In line with biblical principles and for the sake of those to whom I minister, I promise to maintain confidentiality, and to protect the precious gift of trust entrusted to me.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Printed Name: _____

NOTE: although it is a general rule not to share confidential information, the following exceptions do exist:

1. If you have knowledge that a fellow student's actions have been unethical and/or illegal, and that those actions have or would bring harm to others at the school or to Elijah House, then this should be reported to the small group leader, who will report it to the Live School Director or Video School Facilitator.

2. The following cases should be reported first to the Live School Director or Video School Facilitator, and then to the appropriate legal authorities within 24 hours of receiving knowledge of such situations, pursuant to the laws of your state:

- A child has been or is being physically or sexually abused or is in imminent danger of physical or sexual abuse. (Because so many of us were physically or sexually abused as children, this raises a question: do we have to report all cases of physical or sexual abuse? The answer is no; this rule applies only to children who are presently under 18. For instance, if a 13-year old has been molested, you must report it, but if a 50-year-old reports that he/she was molested at the age of 13, this would not have to be reported).

- An elderly person or dependent adult (for instance, a person who is mentally handicapped, autistic, in a coma, etc. — someone who is not fully capable of defending him/herself) has been or is being physically or sexually abused or is in imminent danger of physical or sexual abuse.

- A case in which suicide appears to be imminent

- A person is engaging in homicidal threats or behavior
